BIOBLITZ ART CONTEST!

Help celebrate biodiversity by entering the BioBlitz art contest!

Contest Details

The winning art will be featured on t-shirts worn by over 100 volunteers at the 2008 Deer Flat National Wildlife Refuge BioBlitz. A BioBlitz is a 24-hr survey of life to catalog species and involve the community in science.

Art contest prize ceremony at the BioBlitz festival on Aug 16, 2008. Ribbons awarded for each age category. Best of Show receives t-shirts with their winning drawing. Open to all K-9th grade students in Idaho!

To Enter:

- ☞ Make an original drawing of Idaho wildlife (includes amphibians, birds, fish, insects, mammals, and reptiles)
- ☞ Use no more than three colors on a white background, artists may use marker, crayon, colored pencil, tempera paint, ink, or charcoal. The winning image will be silk screened onto t-shirts so judges will be looking for bold colors and defined lines.
- ☞ Include the artist's name, grade, school, guardian's name, home address, and phone number on the back of each entry. Winners will be notified by June 20, 2008 so summer contact information is needed!
- ☞ Entries are due on June 6, 2008 to: Deer Flat National Wildlife Refuge
